H. Res. 133

Apr. 29, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2) to repeal the United States Housing Act of 1937, deregulate the public housing program and the program for rental housing assistance for low-income families, and increase community control over such programs, and for other purposes.

Granted a rule providing one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services. The rule waives points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 2(1)(6) of rule XI (3 day availability of committee reports) or clause 7(b) of rule XIII (relating to cost estimate availability in the report).

The rule makes in order the Banking and Financial Services Committee amendment in the nature of a substitute as an original bill for amendment purposes and provides that the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute be considered by title. The rule waives points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (relating to appropriations in a legislative bill).

Before the consideration of any other amendment, the rule provides that it shall be in order to consider the amendment printed in the Congressional Record of April 29, 1997, if offered by Representative Lazio of New York or his designee. The rule provides that the amendment shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for 10 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, shall not be subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole and all points of order against the amendment are waived. The rule provides that if the amendment is adopted, the bill, as amended, shall be considered as an original bill for the purpose of further amendment.

The rule provides that Members who have pre-printed their amendments in the Congressional Record prior to their consideration will be given priority and recognition to offer their amendments if otherwise consistent with the House rules, and provides that pre-printed amendments will be considered as read. The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

RULES GRANTED

H. Res. 150

May 15, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1385) to consolidate, coordinate, and improve employment, training, literacy, and vocational rehabilitation programs in the United States, and for other purposes.

Granted a rule providing one hour of general debate to be equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and the Workforce. The rule makes in order the Committee on Education and the Workforce amendment in the nature of a substitute as an original bill for amendment purposes, which shall be considered by division rather than by section and each division shall be considered as read. The rule waives clause 5(a) of rule XXI (appropriating on a legislative bill) against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute.

The rule provides for the consideration of the amendment numbered 1 printed in the Congressional Record if offered by Representative McKeon or his designee, which is considered as read, not subject to amendment or to a division of the question, and is debatable for 10 minutes equally divided between the proponent and an opponent. If adopted, the amendment is considered as part of the base text for further amendment purposes. The rule authorizes the Chair priority in recognition to Members who have pre-printed their amendments in the Congressional Record. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

May 15, 1997. Reported by voice vote.

May 15, 1997. Report filed by Mr. McInnis, H.Rept. 105-98.

H. Res. 152

May 19, 1997

Providing for consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 84) establishing the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal year 1998 and setting forth appropriate budgetary levels for fiscal years 1999, 2000, 2001, and 2002.

Granted a rule waiving all points of order against the resolution and against its consideration. The rule provides for five hours of general debate (including one hour on the subject of economic goals and policies) equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget and 20 minutes controlled by Representative Minge of Minnesota or his designee.

The rule provides for the consideration of those 5 amendments in the nature of a substitute designated in section 2 of the resolution, if printed in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose, which may be offered only in the order designated, may be offered only by a Member designated, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for 20 minutes (except as specified in the rule) equally divided and controlled by a proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to amendment. All points of order are waived against the amendments designated in section 2.

The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote.

The rule provides that the adoption of an amendment in the nature of a substitute shall constitute the conclusion of consideration of the concurrent resolution for amendment. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the concurrent resolution and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except amendments offered by the chairman of the Committee on the Budget to achieve mathematical consistency. The rule further provides that the concurrent resolution will not be subject to a demand for a division of the question of its adoption. Finally, the rule provides that rule XLIX (establishment of statutory limit on the public debt) shall not apply with respect to the adoption by the Congress of a concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998.

RULES GRANTED

*H. Res. 165

June 11, 1997

H. Res. 169

June 19, 1997

Waiving a requirement of clause 4(b) of rule XI with respect to consideration of certain resolutions reported from the Committee on Rules.

Granted a rule waiving clause 4(b) of rule XI (requiring a two-thirds vote to consider a rule on the same day it is reported from the Rules Committee) against certain resolutions reported from the Rules Committee. The waiver applies to a special rule reported before June 14, 1997 providing for consideration of a bill introduced by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997.

June 11, 1997. Reported by voice vote.

June 11, 1997. Report filed by Mr. Goss, H.Rept. 105-128.

June 19, 1997. Laid on the table.

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1119) to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1998 and 1999 for military activities of the Department of Defense, to prescribe military personnel strengths for fiscal years 1998 and 1999, and for other purposes.

Granted a rule providing two hours of general debate equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on National Security. The rule waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The rule provides for consideration of the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute now printed in the bill as an original bill for the purposes of amendment and all points of order are waived against the amendment in the nature of a substitute. The rule makes in order only those amendments printed in the report of the Committee on Rules and the amendments en bloc described in section 3 of the resolution.

The rule provides that, except as specified in section 5 of the resolution, amendments will be considered only in the order and manner specified in the report. Except as otherwise provided in the report, amendments shall be debatable for 10 minutes divided between a proponent and an opponent. Amendments shall be considered as read and are not amendable (except for pro forma amendments offered by the Chairman and ranking minority member of the National Security Committee). All points of order are waived against the amendments printed in the report and those described in section 3 of this resolution.

The rule provides for an extra 60 minutes of debate of Bosnia, equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on National Security.

The rule authorizes the Chairman of the National Security Committee or his designee to offer amendments en bloc consisting of amendments in part 2 of the report or germane modifications thereto, which shall be considered as read except that modifications shall be reported, shall be debatable for 20 minutes divided between the Chairman and ranking member of the National Security Committee or their designees and which shall not be subject to amendment or demand for division of the question.

The rule provides that, for the purposes of inclusion in such amendments en bloc, an amendment printed in the form of a motion to strike may be modified to the form of a germane perfecting amendment to the text originally proposed to be stricken. The original proponent of an amendment included in such amendments en bloc may insert a statement in the Congressional Record immediately before the dispositions of the en bloc amendments.

The rule permits the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes on any amendment and to reduce to 5 minutes the time for voting after the first of a series of votes provided that the first vote is not less than 15 minutes. The rule also permits the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to recognize for consideration of any amendment printed in the report out of the order in which printed, but not sooner than one hour after the Chairman of the Committee on National Security or a designee announces from the floor a request to the effect.

RULES GRANTED

The rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions. Finally, the rule provides that House Resolution 161, 162, and 165 are laid on the table.

Report filed by Mr. Solomon, H.Rept. 105-137.

June 19, 1997. Adopted by the House as amended by record vote of 322-101, after agreeing to an amendment by record vote of 329-94.

H. Res. 174

June 24, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2015) to provide for reconciliation pursuant to subsections (b)(1) and (c) of section 105 of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998, and for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2014) to provide for reconciliation pursuant to subsections (b)(2) and (d) of section 105 of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1998.

Granted a rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 2015 ("The Balanced Budget Act") and waives all points of order against its consideration. The rule provides three hours of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget. The rule considers the amendment printed in the Congressional Record and numbered as 1, as adopted. All points of order are waived against the provisions of the bill, as amended by the rule. The rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

Section 2 of the rule provides for the consideration of H.R. 2014 ("The Taxpayer Relief Act") and waives all points of order against consideration of the bill and against its provisions, as amended by the rule. The rule provides three hours of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means. The rule considers the amendment printed in the Congressional Record and numbered 2, as adopted in the House and in the Committee of the Whole. The rule provides for consideration of the bill, as amended, as an original bill for the purposes of further amendment.

The rule provides for the consideration of an amendment printed in the Congressional Record and numbered 1, only if offered by Representative Rangel of New York or his designee, which shall be debatable for one hour equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, and which shall not be subject to amendment or to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order are waived against the amendment. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

RULES GRANTED

H. Res. 280

Oct. 24, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1270) to amend the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982.

Granted a rule providing one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Commerce and twenty minutes of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Resources. The rule waives points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget). The rule provides for consideration of the bill for amendment under the five minute rule. The rule provides for the consideration of the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Commerce as an original bill for the purpose of amendment. The rule waives points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (prohibiting appropriations in authorization measures) and section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget).

The rule also provides that, notwithstanding clause 5(c) of rule XXIII (relating to motions to strike unfunded mandates), for consideration of only those amendments printed in the report of the Committee on Rules and that these amendments may only be offered in the order listed in the report and only by the Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by a proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment and shall not be subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole.

The rule waives points of order against the last amendment printed in the Rules Committee report for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (prohibiting appropriations in authorization measures) and section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget).

Further, the rule waives points of order against consideration in the House of S. 104 for failure to comply with section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget). The rule provides for the consideration of a motion to strike all after the enacting clause of S. 104 and to inserting lieu thereof the provisions of H.R. 1270, as passed by the House. Finally, the rule provides that upon the adoption of the motion and Senate bill as amended, it is in order to move that the House insist on its amendment to S. 104 and request a conference thereon.

October 24, 1997. Reported by voice vote.

October 24, 1997. Report filed by Mr. Hastings, H.Rept. 105-345.

October 31, 1997. Laid on the table.

H. Res. 283

Oct. 28, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1270) to amend the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982.

Granted a rule providing one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Commerce and twenty minutes of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Resources. The rule waives points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget). The rule provides for consideration of the bill for amendment under the five rule. The rule provides for the consideration of the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Commerce as an original bill for the purpose of amendment. The rule waives points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (prohibiting appropriations in authorization measures) and section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on Budget).

The rule also provides, notwithstanding clause 5(c) of rule XXIII (relating to motions to strike unfunded mandates), for consideration of only those amendments printed in the report of the Committee on Rules and that these amendments may only be offered in the order listed in the report and only by the Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by a proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment and shall not be subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole.

The rule waives points of order against the last amendment printed in the Rules Committee report for failure to comply with clause 5(a) of rule XXI (prohibiting appropriations in authorization measures) and section 306 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget).

The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to reduce the voting time on any postponed question to five minutes provided that that vote follows a fifteen minute vote. The rule provides that after a motion that the Committee rise has been rejected on a day, the Chairman may entertain another such motion on that day only if offered by the Majority Leader or his designee. The rule also provides that after the motion to strike out the enacting words of the bill (as described in clause 7 of rule XXIII) has been rejected, the Chairman may not entertain another such motion during the further consideration of the bill. The rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (requiring provisions in the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Budget to be referred to or reported by the Committee on the Budget). The rule provides for the consideration of a motion to strike all after the enacting clause of S. 104 and to insert in lieu thereof the provisions of H.R. 1270, as passed by the House. Finally, the rule provides that upon the adoption of the motion and the Senate bill as amended, it is in order to move that the House insist on its amendment to S. 104 and request a conference thereon.

October 28, 1997. Reported by voice vote.

October 28, 1997. Report filed by Mr. Hastings, H.Rept. 105-354.

October 29, 1997. Adopted by the House as reported by record vote of 259-155.

H. Res. 284

Oct. 28, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2493) to establish a mechanism by which the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior can provide for uniform management of livestock grazing on Federal lands.

Granted a rule providing one hour of general debate with 30 minutes equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Resources and 30 minutes equally divided between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Agriculture. The rule limits the amendment process to three hours. The rule makes in order the Resources Committee amendment in the nature of a substitute as an original bill for the purpose of amendment.

The rule makes in order, before consideration of any other amendment, a manager's amendment offered by Representative Smith of Oregon or his designee, which is printed in the Rules Committee report, is debatable for 10 minutes equally divided between the proponent and an opponent, is not subject to a demand for a division of the question, and if adopted will be considered as part of the base text.

The rule provides priority recognition to members who preprint their amendments in the Congressional Record. The rule also allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce votes to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

October 28, 1997. Reported by voice vote.

October 28, 1997. Report filed by Mr. McInnis, H.Rept. 105-355.

October 30, 1997. Adopted by the House as reported by record vote of 277-139.

H. Res. 288

Oct. 29, 1997

Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2746) to amend title VI of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to give parents with low-incomes the opportunity to choose the appropriate school for their children and for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2616) to amend titles VI and X of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to improve and expand charter schools.

Granted a rule providing for consideration of the bill H.R. 2746.

The rule provides for two hours of debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and the Workforce. The rule provides one motion to recommit.

The rule also provides for the consideration of the bill H.R. 2616. The rule provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and the Workforce. The rule makes in order the Committee on Education and the Workforce amendment in the nature of a substitute as an original bill for the purpose of amendment, which shall be considered as read.

The rule provides for the consideration of the manager's amendment printed in the report of the Committee on Rules, if offered by Rep. Goodling or his designee, which is considered as read, is not subject to amendment or to a division of the question, is debatable for 10 minutes equally divided between the proponent and an opponent, and if adopted, is considered as part of the base text for further amendment purposes.

The rule authorizes the Chair to accord priority in recognition to Members who have preprinted their amendments in the Congressional Record. The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce votes to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. The rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

The rule provides that in the engrossment of H.R. 2616, the Clerk shall add the text of H.R. 2746, as passed by the House, as a new matter at the end of H.R. 2616 and make conforming and designation changes within the engrossment. The rule provides that upon the addition of the text of H.R. 2746 to the engrossment of H.R. 2616, H.R. 2746 shall be laid on the table. Finally, the rule provides that H.Res. 280 is laid on the table.
